Last Meeting of Year at East Middle School

This is our Holiday meeting to hear students sing and share the yuletide friendship of members. We are meeting at East Middle School on Wednesday. School starts at 7:30 am. We want to arrive just after that so our meeting will start at 7:45 am. Park in the North lot and come in the north door of the school. Our meeting will go until 8:45 pm.

Light Up the Grand Parade, Dec. 4

Weather was great for the walkers! We had over 60 JOIs and some of their parents who walked in the parade. Thanks to Roxanne and Paul Fitzpatrick for providing the float and sound effects. It was fun to walk down Grand River Ave. and wish our community members Merry Christmas!

Application for 2021-2022 The Leslie Rebtov Optimist International Essay Contest

Official Topic: “How Does an Optimistic Mindset Change My Tomorrow?”

Official Essay Contest Rules

Each contestant must be given a copy of the rules and complete the entry form. The rules contain information about the contest, judging and awards.

Section I - General Rules

1. The Optimist International Essay contest is divided into two levels of competition: Club and District.
2. Contestants must enter through a local Optimist Club, or an At-Large contest if a local club is not available. An At-Large student may not have competed in an Optimist International or District contest in the same year.
3. Contestants must compose an original essay with limited guidance from others. Webster's dictionary defines an essay as an analytic or interpretative literary composition. Works of fiction or poetry will not be accepted.
4. All District-level competitions must have a minimum of 3 contestants participating.
5. Optimist International will have the right to edit, publish or otherwise duplicate any essay entered into the contest without payment to the author.

Section II - Qualifications for Contestants

1. The contest is open to students under age 19 as of October 1st of the current Optimist International Contest year (October 1 – September 30) and who have not yet completed secondary school or its equivalent, including CEGEP students in Québec, Canada. There is no minimum age. Students must enter in the District in which they reside. U.S. students attending school on military installations outside the U.S. are eligible to enter in their last home of record.
2. Contestants are eligible for only one Club 's essay contest during any given year.
3. No student who has previously won a District Optimist Essay contest scholarship will be eligible to compete at any level of the competition again.
4. All contestants at each level of the contest must show proof of age before competing. Optimist Clubs may require a copy of birth certificate or passport if offering Club scholarship separate from Optimist International. District winners must provide a copy of a birth certificate or passport with the District entry documentation.

Section III – Contest Rules

1. Participants must write on the official topic.
2. Each entry must begin with a title page containing: the official topic, number of words, writer's name, address, phone number, name of school and date of birth.
3. At the top of page 1 should be the official topic and the number of words (penalty of 2 points for lack of topic and 5 points for failure to identify the total number of words correctly).
4. Essays must be typewritten and double-spaced (Deduction of 5 points).
5. Essays must contain at least 700 words but no more than 800 words. Every word of the essay is counted. This does not include the title, bibliography or footnotes. Hyphenated words count as 1 word (Deduction of 5 points for each 25 words over/under limit).
6. Each page of the essay must be numbered starting with page 1 of the essay, not the title page. The numbers must be centered at the bottom of each page.
7. Any quotations or copyrighted material used must be identified properly. For example, use of a specific writer's format (such as MLA) may be specified by the instructor overseeing the contest. Failure to identify non-original material will result in disqualification.

Application for 2021-2022 The Leslie Rebtov Optimist International Essay Contest

8. No references can be made in the essay that identifies the student, parents, school, community or sponsoring Optimist Club or District (Deduction of 5 points or fraction based on degree of identification).
9. An essay may be written in either English, French, or Spanish if the language used is an official language of the country in which the sponsoring Club is located.
10. The entry must be stapled together in the upper left-hand corner. Covers of any type are not accepted.

Section IV – Judging

1. Judging will be completed by a panel of three qualified judges. At the Club level, judges may be Optimist Members, who are not acquainted with the contestants. At the District level, judges must be non-Optimists.
2. In an effort to conceal the identity of each contestant, each entry will be assigned a number by the Essay Contest Chair. The assigned number will be placed on the title page and page 1 of the essay. The title page will then be detached and retained by the Essay Contest Chair. The judges will be given the essay bearing only the assigned number.
3. Judges will not discuss or compare essay being judged.
4. Only judges can assign a penalty or award points.

Section V – Scoring of Contest

Scoring procedures at all levels of the contest will be identical.

1. Material Organization - logical interpretation of the subject, adherence to topic: 30 points
2. Creativity: 10 points
